Venue

Situated in central Portugal, Covilhã is a welcoming city combining milliner history with social dynamism, full of contemporaneousness and future. Set in a cultural landscape dominated by the Serra da Estrela, the locals -- known as “covilhanenses” -- like all “beirões”, cultivate the art of entertaining where the sympathy, quality and excellence are acquired values. Covilhã is located in the central region of Portugal near Serra da Estrela Natural Parque. From Lisbon or Oporto airports, the town of Covilhã can be reached by car, train or bus.
